

Crans Montana Forum in Baku `very important`

02 JULY 2012 [11:43] - TODAY.AZ

"Crans Montana Forum, which is held in Azerbaijan`s capital, is of great importance," Pascal Heyman, an OSCE delegate to the forum, told journalists.

He said the agenda featured a wide range of topical issues, including energy and security.

"Energy policy and security are important issues. The forum provides a brilliant opportunity for us to exchange views on such important and topical problems."

Heyman also shared his impressions from his stay in Azerbaijan. "I`ve been to Azerbaijan for several times. Azerbaijan is very interesting and wonderful country. Every time I go back home, I want to return to Azerbaijan again," he added.
