

At close of Crans Montana Forum, Geneva: ISESCO Director General presents certificates of appreciation to youth at forum

Dr Abdulaziz Othman Altwaijri, Director General of the Islamic Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (ISESCO), presented the 2012 Crans Montan Forum's certificates of appreciation to youth for participation in the forum's International Summit on Transnational Crime, which took place in Geneva, Switzerland, from 17 through 20 October 2012, on the theme "World's Global Security Challenges from Africa and the Arab World". The certificates of appreciation were given to youth from African and Arab countries during the award presentation ceremony held yesterday, in the presence of Mr Jean-Paul Carteron, President and Founder of the Crans Montana Forum, along with ambassadors of African countries to the United Nations Office in Geneva and other participants.
