

Yevheniya Tymoshenko receives award in Geneva

Chairman and founder of the Crans Montana Forum Jean-Paul Carteron (R) and Yevheniya Tymoshenko, the daughter of jailed former Prime Minister of Ukraine Yulia Tymoshenko (2nd R) partake in the award ceremony during the Crans Montana Forum in Geneva, Switzerland, October 19, 2012. UKRINFORM.

GENEVA. The 14th International Summit on Transnational Crime was held in Geneva within the Crans Montana Forum. Representatives of organizations that deals with security issues, including the United Nations Organization, UN Development Programme, Amnesty International, UNESCO, as well as politicians and experts took part in the Summit. Yevheniya Tymoshenko, the daughter of jailed former Prime Minister of Ukraine Yulia Tymoshenko and deputy head of the Batkivshchyna Party Hryhoriy Nemyria were also in attendance. Chairman and founder of the Crans Montana Forum Jean-Paul Carteron handed Yevheniya Tymoshenko a Medal for her contribution to the defense of democracy and human rights. In 2005 Yulia Tymoshenko has also received an award of the Crans Montana Forum. /TKS/