

Crans Montana forum starts in Baku

DATE: 28.06.2012 - 13:05

Today the Crans Montana forum is starting in Baku.

The event will last till 1 July, Gun.Az reported.

The forum is held with the support of the Azerbaijani government.

The event is dedicated to public and private administration issue on the backdrop of energy policy.

Main discussions of the forum will be dedicated to Azerbaijan's role in energy security of the Eastern Europe, situation in the Middle East, integration of Islamic countries to the world union and monitoring ethical rules in the international corporative policy.

The forum will involve heads of state and government of several countries, as well as business representatives from Europe, Middle East, America, Africa, Arab countries and Far East.

Crans Montana forum is an international organization established in 1986 in Crans Montana (Switzerland). This organization cooperates closely with the UNO, UNESCO, UNIDO and European Union.

ANN.Az