

Fujairah Crown Prince arrives in Baku for Crans Montana Forum

Forum works for the promotion of international cooperation and global growth

Baku: Shaikh Mohammad Bin Hamad Bin Mohammad Al Sharqi, Crown Prince of Fujairah, arrived on Thursday in Azerbaijan to participate in the 23rd Annual Session of the Crans Montana Forum in Baku.

The Forum which will continue until the first of July is held under the theme “Dealing with a changing world.”

Upon his arrival at Heydar Aliyev International Airport, Shaikh Mohammad was received by Salem Khalifa Al Ghafli, UAE Ambassador to Azerbaijan, and a number of officials.

The Crans Montana Forum works for the promotion of international cooperation and contributes to global growth while ensuring a high level of stability, equity and security. The forum also aims to foster best practices and ensure a global dialogue.