The chairman and founder of Crans Montana Forum (CMF) Mr. Jean-Paul Carteron selected five young Namibian business personalities as part of the 46 New Leaders for Tomorrow 2012 at the Crans Montana Forum of New Leaders for Tomorrow that took place in Geneva, Switzerland from 17 to 20 October 2012.

The forum focused on challenges within Africa and the Arab world and was attended by some influential business personalities and prominent African leaders including the former President of the Republic of Zambia, H.E Hon. Rupiah Banda.

The Under Secretary of the Namibia Investment Centre, in the Ministry of Trade and Industry Bernadette Artivor led the Namibian business delegation to the Crans Montana Forum (CMF) of New Leaders for Tomorrow. The Forum is a unique community of young leaders from Africa, the Arab World, Eastern Europe, Central Asia, South-America and Far East.

They are selected according to their exceptional professional achievements and leadership experience in business and government. Candidates must be younger than 42-years and must at least attest to professional success, leadership experience and enjoy a good reputation in the community. The New Leaders for Tomorrow should be active within their community and committed to social and economic development of their country.

The Namibians selected to the New Leaders for Tomorrow 2012 are Mr. Shaun Awaseb of Wadadee Group, Mr. Joao Paulo Dos Santos of JPS Investment cc, Ms. Twapewa Kadhikua of Xwama Cultural Village, Mr. Tonata Shiimi of A-Z Investment Holdings and Mr. Michael Iyambo of Oshikoto Fresh Fruits & Vegetables.

The CMF of New Leaders for Tomorrow supports the commitment of young generations in the construction of a more humane and impartial world. The forum aims to provide decisive support in the success of these young decision makers of extraordinary potential, giving them access to unique networking platforms. Supporting these new leaders is a way to durably invest in the youth and help them to face challenges in their respective countries.

The selected New Leaders for Tomorrow will enjoy the privileges associated with the forum for a period of three years. They would also benefit from the support of the forum and a free access to all forums and high-level summits organised by the CMF, allowing them to have a direct impact on world affairs and to strengthen human, economic and social relations in their respective regions.
