

Berisha discusses economy and terrorism in the forum of Crans Montana

Former Prime Minister Sali Berisha will participate in the Crans Montana Forum in the framework of the 17th Summit of the International Convention on Transnational Crime and Homeland and Global Security.

The summit will be held from 12nd to 16th October and will focus on topics such as the global crisis and the regional security as well as their impact on the global economy.

Participants will discuss on how they can cooperate more in order to reduce the international crisis, fight trafficking of human beings, the impact of relations between the EU and Russia, and will consider the issue of corruption, money laundering and economic crime in the Balkans and beyond.

Other important issues will be violent extremism, especially in the sensitive region of the Middle East. Berisha is expected to hold a speech on this occasion. /Albeu.com/
