President Gjorge Ivanov will pay a visit to the Swiss Confederation and take part at the Crans Montana Forum in Geneva from October 14-16.

On Thursday, President Ivanov will address the forum's official opening session themed "Global Security and Terror Threats: International and Regional Cooperation and Conflict Prevention Addressing the Issue of Threats on International Business".

Ivanov will also address Friday's plenary session "The Western Balkan Migrant Route as a New Road Towards the West".

This year's Homeland and Global Security Forum will focus on the migrant crisis, global security, threats of organized international crime, extremism and radicalism.

During the visit, the Macedonian President is scheduled to meet with UN officials and visit the Geneva School of Diplomacy and International Relations.

President Ivanov received the "Prix de la Fondation" of the Crans Montana Forum in 2014 for his activities and achievements in all fields, as well as commitment to the defense of fundamental freedoms.

The Crans Montana Forum is a Swiss international organization established in 1986 with the support and the involvement of Swiss authorities. The forum works for the promotion of international cooperation and contributes to global growth while ensuring a high level of stability, equity and security. The aim is also to foster the best practices and ensure a global dialogue.
