

Libya Africa Investment portfolio Top Manager Attends Crans Montana Forum

18/03/2013 16:32:00

Libya Africa Investment portfolio (LAP) was invited to be part of the Crans Montana Forum on Africa and South-South Cooperation which took place in Brussels, Belgium on 6-9 March.

Mr. Ahmed Kashadah, the Director Manager of LAP, participated in the forum during which he highlighted LAP's accomplishments during the past year, especially with regard to the portfolio's new strategies that reflect reflects a professional investment portfolio with no political or personal interests.

Mr. Kashadah briefed the gathering of how LAP's image has been improved as a result of the efforts of its management and staff.

He also had the opportunity at Crans Montana Forum to meet with top executives, government officials and discuss future cooperation.

The forum devoted a high-level panel to the competitiveness of African ports in the world with focus on the security of the continent's marine space.

Among the participants in the form top governmental officials, heads of major ports and marine organizations, intelligence and defense experts as well as specialized companies from around the world.