On October 18th SOCAR hosted an official dinner as part of the 14th Annual Session of Crans Montana Forum dedicated to the transnational crime and global security.

With the support of the Embassy of Azerbaijan in Bern and SOCAR Trading SA the event was held on the occasion of the Independence Day of Azerbaijan.

The festivities took place at the InterContinental Hotel in Geneva and were attended by over 200 participants representing world governments.

Azerbaijan was presented by an information stand that included various printed materials covering wide aspects of the country and its culture.

At the end of the event, a number of guests of honor were given a souvenir gift.
