

Programme News

- 19 October 2012

Crans Montana Forum Panel: "After the Arab Spring – The 'Arab Winter' and Global Security: Impact on Security in the Maghreb, the Mediterranean, and Europe"

On Friday 19 October 2012, Dr Mohammad–Mahmoud Ould Mohamedou, Head of the Regional Capacity Development Programme and Senior Fellow, chaired a high–level panel on "After the Arab Spring -- The 'Arab Winter' and Global Security: Impact on Security in the Maghreb, the Mediterranean, and Europe" as part of the Crans Montana Forum, which was held at the Intercontinental Hotel in Geneva.

Among the speakers were: Farida Allaghi, Senior Adviser for International Development in Libya and Anne–Marie Lizin of the Belgium Senate. The discussion was co–chaired by Alain Juillet, former Head of Intelligence of France.

The discussion assessed the status of domestic, regional, and international security threats in the aftermath of the 2011 uprisings in the Middle East and North Africa, as the prospect for democratization in the region.

 Crans Montana Panel – 19 October 2012.pdf

Mr Alain Juillet (left), former Head of Intelligence (DGSE), France, and Dr Mohammad Mahmoud Ould Mohamedou, GCSP.