PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION

In the framework of your participation, the Crans Montana Forum uses your personal identification data to proceed with your Registration.

Only your Name, First Name, Function, Organization and Country of origin will be featured in the related event's "List of Participants" published on our website and printed to be provided to other participants. Our commitment is that we shall never transmit your data, without your consent, to third parties not directly involved in managing your registration and participation.

The Crans Montana Forum is an Institution and you can be assured that your personal data cannot be sold in any case for any kind of purpose!

In compliance with the new European General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), you have the right to access, correct and/or delete your nominate information by contacting the Crans Montana Forum's Administration either by post or email at info@montana30.org

ETHICS COMPLIANCE

As a major condition of the acceptance of their Registration, Participants commit themselves to comply with the Forum's mission : offering to key representatives of the civil and official societies an informal platform allowing encounters and the sharing of knowledge and experience.

Participants are not authorised to use the Forum's trademark, publications, image or their relationship with the Forum's Representatives to engage in any deals or business outside of the regular scope of the Forum activities. The Forum's role is limited, very strictly, with the sole provision of a platform for informal exchanges open to persons of good faith.

If it happens that any kind of Business takes place between some Participants, by definition such a process will be conducted independently and the Crans Montana Forum's responsibility cannot, in any case be engaged, directly or indirectly.

Participants declare that they have full knowledge and agree to scrupulously respect all national and international legal standards on good business practices, in particular those defined by the OECD regarding the bribery of Public Officials and the regulations of the United States of America and United Kingdom concerning the safeguarding of foreign Civil Servants' integrity.
