

14th International Summit on Transnational Crime (Geneve, 17-18 October 2012)

- Geneve
- October 2012

At the 14th International Summit on Transnational Crime which was held in Geneva on October 17-20, 2012, Ambassador Arif Havas Oegroseno spoke before more than 300 distinguished guests from 100 countries, including 3 Heads of State/Government and 20 ministerial level officials. He highlighted the strategic position of Indonesia and Malacca Strait for global trade and energy supply, mechanism of trilateral littoral states cooperation (Indonesia, Malaysia, and Singapore), and the important aspects of the strait management: security, safety and environment.

The 14th annual session of International Summit on Transnational Crime was organized by the Crans Montana Forum and this year's theme was "World's Global Security: Challenges from Africa and the Arab World". In this prestigious forum, Ambassador Oegroseno was one of the panelists of "Transport & Energy Supply Routes Security" session which was chaired by the Secretary General of Maritime Organization for Western and Central Africa (OMAOC-MOWCA) and the President of Crans Montana Club of African Ports' Strategic Committee Alain Michel. (Embassy of the Republic of Indonesia, Brussels)